General Rules of the Dorothy S. Johnson "Y" Retreat

- Although there is a pool in the area, the WH&OM Society does NOT endorse unsupervised swimming or any water activities
- You are expected to attend and be on time for all mandatory workshops, sessions, worship services and other planned activities as specified in the schedule of activities
- Use of cell phones and other personal electronic devices is strictly prohibited during all workshops, sessions, worship services and other planned activities and should not be used at the retreat. If you are found with any of these devices they will be confiscated and returned at the end of the retreat
- You are expected to bring a Bible, pens and notebook to each session
- You are expected to be respectful and conduct yourselves in a Christ-like manner
- Under no circumstances will the use or possession of illegal substances or alcoholic beverages be tolerated
- You are expected to observe the quiet time and curfew each night
- Once you are in your room for the night you are expected to remain there until morning
- There will be NO visitation of males in females' rooms or females in males' rooms unless an adult chaperone is with you; permission from the chaperone is not enough to grant visitation
- You should let your chaperone know where you are at all times and chaperones should know where their youth are at all times
- Respect your elders! Just because an adult is not your chaperone does not mean that you should not listen to them
- Bedroom shoes, pajamas, robes, scarves and do rags are only to be worn in your room
- Young men: when participating in sports, you are expected to remain fully clothed, in other words keep your shirts on
- Young ladies: when utilizing the pool area please make sure that you are wearing a bathing suite that is not too revealing – no it'sy, bit'sy, teeny, weenie bikinis
- Be mindful of your language. This is a Christian facility, more importantly, YOUR Christian facility, so remember you are attending a Christian function
- You are not expected to dress up for sessions, but your clothing should reflect that you are attending a church retreat. We do not want to see any of the following: very short or excessively tight shorts, pants or skirts; crop tops; halter tops; very low cut shirts; oversized pants or shorts with undergarments or body parts showing. If you are found wearing any of these items, you will be asked to change clothes immediately
- Be mindful of the fact that you are AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST and you are expected to carry yourself accordingly
